Professional Profile

I'm a finalist from KCA University - with theoretical knowledge in programming - who is optimistic about personal and organisational growth and possesses a positive attitude towards career and life. I have analytical and evaluation skills and can clearly interpret and explain complex information. I am a junior developer skilled in front-end programming using languages such as HTML, CSS, PHP, SQL and JavaScript. I value teamwork on a priority basis in a way that enhances efficiency, effectiveness, and productivity. My experience is not limited to programming but includes network installation, configuration, and hardware repair. I am proficient in the English and Kiswahili languages.
